Gov. Perry Appoints Moseley to Texas Transportation Commission

AUSTIN- Gov. Rick Perry has appointed Jeff Moseley of Houston to the Texas Transportation Commission for a term to expire Feb. 1, 2017. The commission oversees the Texas Department of Transportation.

Moseley is self-employed and a consultant for Opportunity Houston. He is also former president and CEO of the Greater Houston Partnership, past executive director of the Economic Development and Tourism Department for the Office of the Governor and a former Denton County Judge. He is a member of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Committee of 100, and a board member of the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, United Way of Greater Houston, the Center for Houston's Future, and the NCAA Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas. He is a past board member of the Texas Economic Development Corporation and a volunteer for Houston Youth with a Mission.

Moseley received a bachelor's degree from Southern Nazarene University in Oklahoma.
