DFW AIRPORT (KRLD) – We are just days away from the debut of DART's new route to DFW Airport.

Monday marks the beginning of rail service to the airport on DART's Orange Line.

The airport DART station is at Terminal A with connections from there to the other terminals.

City, airport and DART Officials celebrated the new "extended" Orange line with a luncheon and ribbon-cutting prior to the boarding of Friday's inaugural run to the airport.
