Map post:

Analytics' favorite car technology service Uber has released maps showing usage in each of the 100 cities that it now serves. You see it in the map above. Downtown, Uptown, Oak Lawn and Knox-Henderson are pretty popular neighborhoods. There's a little East in there, too. And, of course, trips to DFW International Airport. Looks like it's pretty popular up the Central Expressway and Highways, as well.
