Dallas Area Rapid Transit will celebrate National Bike to Work Day by hosting five "bike energizer stations from 7 to 9:30 a.m. Friday.

The stations will have information about local bicycle issues, along with free promotional items, refreshments and tune ups.

The stations are Downtown Garland Station, 430 W. Walnut St.; St. Paul Station on Bryan Ave in downtown Dallas; Arapaho Center Station 1051 N. Greenville Ave. in Richardson; Las Colinas Urban Center Station 890 Lake Carolyn Parkway in Irving and the intersection of the Bluebonnet and Chisholm trails in Plano.

Bikes are permitted on any DART vehicle and all Trinity Railway Ex press trains.

DART is also reconfiguring the middle car (C-Car) on 10 light rail vehicles to better accommodate bicycles wheelchairs, strollers and luggage. The agency will evaluate customer feedback and consider rolling out the design to the entire fleet after completion of the pilot program later this year.
